

SAFEGUARDING AWARENESS WEEK

What Reviews have told us about practice - How does it feel to be on the frontline?

Target Audience:

Frontline workers and managers of frontline workers this may particularly be useful for any workers in health, social care, domestic abuse, substance or alcohol use and suicide.

DATE: Thursday 21st November 2024

Time: 09:30am - 12:30pm

Venue: Reception Rooms Barnsley Town Hall

How to Book

Please email

sabtraining@barnsley.gov.uk

Cost: Free - although, we reserve the right to charge £50 if someone books onto the event by doesn't attend, and doesn't cancel their places giving at least 2 working days notice.

This will be useful for managers to consider what support their workers require to implement the learning into practice

Learning Outcomes:

1. Understand the frequently occurring themes from Safeguarding Adult Reviews, Child Safeguarding Practice Reviews, Drug and Alcohol Related Death Reviews, Domestic Abuse Related Death Reviews (formerly known as Domestic Homicide Review).
2. Reflecting on your own skills, knowledge and learning needs.
3. Exploring the barriers to applying the learning into your practice.
4. Considering and discussing what tools and knowledge would assist you to put the learning into practice.
5. Consider Implications for your practice