

COMMUNICATION UPDATE

From Andrea Parkin, Director of Nursing and AHPs

Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists Survey

Carers' Roadshow

We have been given the opportunity to give feedback for an informal expert group panel of Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists to improve long waiting lists for Gynaecology services. This survey is for women who are currently on the waiting list. Feedback received will help to impact national policies.

Questionnaire link

Poster for waiting rooms attached as Appendix 1

The Carers' Roadshow is planned for Friday 7 June 2024 10.00 am – 3.00 pm at BHF Priory Centre.

Please share this information and attached flyer with your patients (Appendix 1).

If your teams would like to join us or if you have any students you would like to send along, please email Georgia.Popplewell@nhs.net who can book you a table. This will be to support the BP checks of patients and give general healthy lifestyle advice.

Vaccine Update from UK Health Security Agency

'Thank you to everyone who has already registered for their place at this year's NIN2024 we are looking forward to welcoming you next week. There are a few places still available for day 1 and 2. Please book now to avoid disappointment, booking closes on Wednesday 17 April.

We are delighted to bring you an exciting agenda of speakers and networking opportunities and there are just 15 days to go to this year's National Immunisation Network (NIN) conference 2024 on 24 and 25 April 2024 at Imperial College, London SW7 2AZ. The theme for this year's event is 'protecting every generation' and we hope to spend these two days with as many professionals implementing the national immunisation programmes from across the regions as possible.

You can explore the programme and register to book your place on the website using this link: National Immunisation Network \(NIN\) Conference website.

On the website link above you can:

- view this year's engaging programme
- book your place with full details of how to pay
- view highlights of NIN2023

If you have viewed the website and have any questions, please contact NIN2020@ukhsa.gov.uk
Don't miss this year's NIN2024. Looking forward to seeing you there next week.

Kind regards,

The NIN24 planning team

- UKHSA 12913 Vaccine update NIN 2024 Special - April 2024 02.pdf

Nurse BEST Event

Next Meeting:

Wednesday 22 May 2024

1.00-5.00 pm - online

Book here

Agenda:

- Immunisations Update and Cold Chain events
- Primary Care Updated
- Carers' Roadshow
- My (alternative) journey as a Nursing Associate

Queen's Institute Network

Please see link to join the QI Network for Early Career and Newly Qualified Nurses & Midwives.

The network aims to support nurses and midwives to develop and grow their knowledge, skills and experience in Quality Improvement, and will contribute to nursing and midwifery leadership development and retention of our workforce. Suitable for 3rd year students to NQN RGNS/GPNS.

Link to join the QI Network

Feeding or Eating Disorders

Please see below the link to the MindEd Tips and Resources Hub:

Learning Resources

Eating Disorders Training

Please see below link to some free Eating Disorders training:

Training

ADHD In Women

Please see below link to some useful ADHD resources:

Resources

Immunisations

Please see below link to the Core Standards for Immunisations:

Core Standards

Chief Nursing Officer for England

It was recently been announced that Dame Ruth May will be retiring as Chief Nursing Officer for England later this year.

Carers Roadshow

Are you an unpaid carer?

This free event is a great opportunity to learn more about the support available to you and the loved ones you care for.

Friday 7th June 2024

10am-3pm

BHF Priory Centre,
Pontefract Road,
Barnsley, S71 5PN